8. The Panel agreed that all secretarial evaluation sheets should be completed by the Division Chiefs.

9. There were no promotion recommendations.

10. There were no award recommendations. The Panel members agreed that there was an ORD need to review and consider Quality Step Increases for secretarial, clerical and registry personnel.

11. The Panel agreed that a memorandum should be prepared and sent to all interested secretarial, clerical and registry personnel encouraging them to enter into college degree programs in order to prepare for professional positions at higher grade levels. It was requested that these employees be encouraged to seek training in job-related subjects and languages, and ORD management would assist in this effort as much as possible within the Office of Training guidelines. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were asked to prepare the memorandum.

12. The Training Officer was asked to prepare a 1980 Training Plan for secretarial, clerical and registry personnel in order that it might be presented to the Division Chief concerned. He or she will be asked to approve the plan with the understanding that the employee will be permitted to attend the training session when scheduled.

13. [REDACTED] told the Panel that he felt that all ORD secretaries should be rescheduled for MAG II instruction again because many of them were not using the machines properly. He asked that each secretary be contacted to see if they needed instruction on the 6640 Printer located in AMR/ORD. If so, [REDACTED] could give them instructions.
